

2018 Clary Scarecrow Contest

Participate in Coshocton's 3rd Annual Scarecrow Competition

Available for public viewing at Clary Gardens all of October 2018

This contest is sponsored by the CLARY GARDEN FOUNDATION (CGF). All scarecrow funds raised this year go toward capital improvements in the children's garden. Competition is encouraged between agencies, families, school groups, businesses, and any organization in general - Let's get creative and have some fun!

-----Clary Gardens is open FREE to the public every day during daylight hours-----

PARTICIPANT EXPECTATIONS:

- (1) Construct a scarecrow that can be positioned by CGF staff (with your assistance if necessary).
- (2) Garden placement as early as Tuesday, Sept 18th at 8am, and no later than Wednesday, Sept 26th at 4pm.
- (3) Submit: Your completed registration (below) AND tax-deductible registration fee:
$10 for family/child-created entries OR $25 all other entries *Cash or Check made out to: Clary Gardens

THOUGHTFUL CONSIDERATIONS:

- All entrants must schedule with CGF ahead of time, letting them know which day/time you will be dropping off or assisting in scarecrow placement (dates/times listed above)
- Scarecrows should be constructed with materials to withstand the elements for up to 6 weeks
- Use of metal rods, posts, or wood stakes is permitted – Please call ahead if questions – Pinterest is helpful
- Creating a scene with scarecrow(s) is allowed (fee is per scarecrow) – All entries must incorporate straw
- This year's scarecrow judging will be conducted by garden patrons and will also include a People's Choice category - Winners will be notified and published in local media
- Accompanying signage will be created by CGF (from registration) and will be posted next to each entry
- CGF reserves the right of refusal to display offensive entries
